

The Zhik International Topper Class Association WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS 2014

Pwllheli, Wales 9 - 15 August, 2014
www.itcaworld.org www.topper2014.com

Liam Glynn, IRL, Topper World Champion 2013

The 2014 Topper World Championships will be held from Saturday August 9th to Friday August 15th in Pwllheli, Wales, hosted by the Club Hwyllo Pwllheli Sailing Club.

The World Championships will be immediately preceded by the British National Championships, from Sunday August 3 to Thursday August 7th. Topper sailors can enter both events and enjoy two back-to-back weeks of exciting racing.

Topper World Championships in recent years have welcomed competitors from around the world, including Great Britain, India, Ireland, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, South Korea, Japan, Australia, South Africa and the United Arab Emirates.

Year on year, sailors have been impressed by the fun and responsive Topper, competitive racing fleet and the huge welcome from “the Friendly Class”.

4.2 Fleet World Championship

The 2014 World Championships includes:-

- Two ISAF-Recognised World Championship Series:-
 - 5.3 Topper World Championships (main fleet)
 - 4.2 Topper World Championships (for smaller sailors)
- Ladies Intercontinental Cup
- International Masters Event
- Full programme of shore-based activities

5.3 Fleet World Championship

Fast, fun and competitive racing

For further information, contact:

Michelle Hill, ITCA International Secretary secretary@itcaworld.org topper2014.com www.itcaworld.org facebook.com/itcaworld

Pwllheli is a well-known venue in the International Sailing World, with a wealth of experience in organising major regattas and sailing events. The great sailing areas and beautiful location ensure the prospect of an excellent event.